BAMBURG BELLE, TRADITION AND CZARAPHINE ALL WIN.

Three Baces N et the Owner of These Horses $11,850 and All Are at Prohibitive Odds-Steeplechase Easy for Lavator -Big Crowd at Brighton Track.

Sydney Paget scored a series of triumphs at Brighton Beach track yesterday afternoon, while the rank and file of public bettors simply while the rank and file of public bettors simply looked on, asit was impossible for them to support these winners at the prices quoted by the layers. The beautiful Hamburg Belle, by Hamburg—Isiac, galloped off with the Brighton Oaks, for three-year-old fillies, one mile and a sixteenth. She was a prohibitive favorite at 1 to 12. Then the two-year-olds Tradition, by Goldfinch-Reclare, and Jon-quil, by Watercress-Rosette, ran first and second in the Neptune Stakes, at six furlongs, their closing price being 1 to 8. Mr. Paget's third success was scored by the filly Czaraphine, by Rubicon-Seraphin, in the first phine, by Rubicon—seraphin, in the first event, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, with 3 to 5 against her. The three races netted Mr. Paget $11,850 as his share of the stakes and the purse, an amount that was secured as easily as rolling off a log.
it was the closing day of the Brighton meeting and as there will be no racing at a local track until the Futurity is run at Sheepshead Bay on Aug. 27 a crowd of 30,000 turf enthusiasts turned out to see the sport. The track was good and the weather just right for a delightful outing. The Oaks was a foregone conclusion for Hamburg Belle. Under the conditions of the stakes she carried only 106 pounds, and with Hildebrand up the combination looked so formidable that only E. R. Thomas's Dimple and Mrs. C. Cochran's Sonoma Belle were sent to the post to contest the prize with the winner of last year's Futurity. Early in the season Hamburg Belle was troubled with osselets, but Trainer A. J. Joyner nursed her with his usual skill and got her back to her real form for yester-

At the start, which was a poor piece of business to say the least, Hamburg Belle was standing sideways when the gate went up, and as she broke hurriedly she bumped Emple, knocking the Mirthful filly out of her stride temporarily. But with a bit of hustling on the part of Hildebrand, Hamburg Belle soon rushed into the leadership and the galloped along under wraps. In the middle of the backstretch Travers made a move with Dimple that excited those that had taken a flyer on Mr. Thomas's filly at 20 to 1, for she dashed up to the side of Hamburg's daughter and actually got her nose in front. But Hildebrand let out a link and the Belle drew away so easily that the crowd realized that it was simply a cakewalk for her. Still, Dimple was game and made another bluff for the lead on the far turn, only to have the Paget filly play with her for a moment and then go away with a few wonderful bounds. It was all over in the stretch, and Hildebrand eased Hamburg Belle almost to a walk at the wire, where she won by a length in 1:47 1-5.

Dimple kept up her hard running and finished three lengths before Sonoma Belle, who was last all the way and burned up a ton of money wagered on her for the place at 1 to 2. The winner pulled up suspiciously, although it could not be said that she was really lame. But those who examined her in the paddock after the race thought they saw slight indications of a ringbone.

Only the big plungers bet on Tradition and Jonquil in the Neptune stakes. They took 1 to 6 until the layers shut them off with a more prohibitive price. E. R. Thomas's Voladay was backed well for the place, but some of the books accepted place bets on Jonquil separately at 3 to 5. Tradition, who is one of the best fillies of the year, took up 122 pounds, including a three pound penalty. This forced her to give seventeen pounds to be a tablement of the pounds.

to her stablemate, eighteen to J. G. Follans-bee's Brushwood, thirteen to J. L. McGinnis's Bottling and eight each to Voladay and James McLaughlin's Pasadena. When Cassidy let them go Pasadena was away running, the Paget pair being slow to begin. But at the turn Hildebrand had taken command with Tradition, while Jonquil was not far behind. As they came down to the wire Bolesen took Jonquil up, so as to make the race sure for Tradition, but the latter was running easily, with Hildebrand looking back. At the wire Trafinishing a length and a half before Pasadena. who beat Voladay a head in a hard drive. The race was run in 1:14.

Czaraphine met a rather poor lot of youngsters. Shaw had the mount, and the Rubicon filly simply toyed with her company, win-ning easily by three parts of a length in 1:08 2-5. Hildebrand drove Martha Jorman 16 to 5, second choice, into the place a head in front of dotowin, 25 to 1. Earldom, a 60 to 1 shot, who made the early pace, was a lewith back.

The Aintree steeplechase, at about two miles, was also unsatisfactory from a public betting standpoint, and was a farce when it came to racing. There were only three starters, J. W. Colt's Lavator, with 164 pounds, being a 3 to 5 favorite, supported almost exclusively by the heavy speculators. Re enjoyed an exercise gallop and won pulled up by ten lengths in 4:31 2-5. W. C. Hayes's irandpa, second in fa vor, walked home forty lengths in front of Walter Cleary.

The first real betting race for the crowd was the fifth, a sprint of six furlongs. The speculation narrowed down to T. D. Sullivan's Old England and J. S. Holland's Counterpoise. The former, with Fuller up for the first time since the Sheepshead Bay meeting. was the medium for a great plunge which pounded the odds down from 3 to 1 to 13 to 10 favorite, while Counterpoise went back from 8 to 5 to twos. The start was a fright. Old England and Counterpoise did not get flying. Mary Glenn had a good lead up to the head of the stretch, but she gave way to Old England. Just then Martin tried to come through the bunch with Counterpoise, but failed, afterward going to the outside for a crive. H. K. Vingut's Consideration, 15 to 1. and Bill Daly's Toi San, backed down to simiodds, were both coming strongly, too, so that the crowd was up in arms as the horses rushed down to the judges, the jockeys all hipping. The official verdict gave the race to Counterpoise by a head, with Consideration a head before Old England and Toi San the same margin behind. The time was

The windup was a handicap, at a mile and a quarter, in which Eugenia Burch took up 126 pounds and gave weight to all the others. The Ben Strome mare, because of her victory over Rosetint on Friday, was a hot favorite at 3 to 2, and had Fuller to pilot her. But she was outrun from the start and was sigdefeated. Duke of Kendal, claimed from E. R. Thomas the other day by C. A. Alnwick, ran a smashing good race and won easily by a length and a half, with 6 to 1 about His time was 2:06 4-5. Cloverland, 4 to 1, took the place by half a length from E. R. Thomas's Palmbearer, the latter being coupled with Lady Potentate and heavily backed at fours. Then the band played "Auld Lang" Syne," and the regulars left the track to pack their trunks for Saratoga.

TEN HAGGIN BRED HORSES FIN-ISH IN THE MONEY.

Clubheuse Patrons Win a Combination

Bet of $1,500 to $150 in the First Four Races—Groans From the Suilivan Clan—Miller to Train for Dwyer.

While yesterday's racing was in part a triumph for Sydney Paget and his clever trainer,
A. J. Joyner, even greater laurels were earned by the millionaire breeder of thoroughbreas.

James B. Haggin. It was at Mr. Haggin's famous Rancho del Paso and Elmendorf studs that ten of the horses finishing in the money first saw the light of day. Beginning with the first race Mr. Haggin bred Czaraphine, the winner, and Gotowin, the third horse, who is a filly by St. Galien-Ortowin. Then in the steeplechase the successful horse, Lavator, who won the Aintree Stakes last year, too, is a Haggin product, being by the great Salvator, out of Hot Spring. Tradition and Jonquil, who ran first and second in the Neptune, and Hamburg Belle, the winner of the last, together with Sonoma Belle, by Star Ruby-Sonoma, who ran third, were also bred by Mr. Haggin, in the fifth race Consideration, by Watercress—Pensa, who cost $18,000 as a yearling, and Old England, by Goldfinch—Queen Bess, running second and third, respectively, were bred at Rancho del Paso, while Mr. Haggin now owns Bathampton, the sire of Counterpoise, the winner of the last race, completed the Haggin triumph for the day. It is not often that one breeder scores so heavily and the incident will be jotted down as without a precedent in the annals of the turf.

The card looked so casy that several patron of the clubhouse went to a well known book maker before the races and asked him what price he would lay against the combination composed of Czaraphine, Lavator, Tradition and Hamburg Belle in the first four races. He promptly offered lote of not he proposition, and the clubhouse commissioners loaded the books with Czaraphine money at $10.5 or any price the books were willing to quote. They clubhouse commissioners loaded the books with Czaraphine money at $10.5 or any price the books were willing to quote. They clubhouse commissioners load named fairly rolled home.

The clubhouse commissioners loaded the books with Czaraphine money at 3 to 5 or any price the books were willing to quote. They dal's success in this race.

"Father Bill" Daly thought he had one of his "getaway day" good things in Toi San in the fifth race. He passed the tip around, and the Pessara filly was backed down from 20 to 1 to fifteens. She ran a bangup race and was beaten three heads.

Hamburg Belle's next engagement is in the Alabama Stakes at Saratoga next Thursday, when she will meet her greatest rival, Newton Bennington's Beldame, at even Queen Belle, running in the colors of the Chelsea Stable was a tip in the fifth race, but she was no better than fifth. Her price dropped a point to sixes.

Richard Miller, the man who trained Africander for Charley Dwyer and who still has the Star Ruby colt in his charge in the interests of his new owner. C. F. Fox, has been engaged to train all of P. J. Dwyer's herses in future, as Tom Welsh has too much on his hands now training the stable of W. B. Leeds and Andrew Miller. Trainer Miller is one of the best on the turf, but has not had the opportunities that other handlers of race-horses have enjoyed. "Charley" Dwyer, by the way, pronounces the story that he is making a book on the "dead line" with Tod Sloan as a "lie made out of whole cloth."
Young Dwyer is not "broke," else he could not be betting $500 to a race, as has been the case lately. The report that Sloan is supplying the bankroll for the alleged book the subject for much mirth, inasmuch as Sloan freely admits that he needs money and would like to get a license to ride on the Jockey Club tracks.

The Cavanagh special train will leave the Grand Central Station at 1:40 o'clock this after-noon for Saratoga. Many bookmakers, sheetwriters, cashiers, runners, trainers, owners, jockeys and regulars will make up the passenger list. Jockey Hildebrand, as soon as he had ridden Hamburg Belle, hurried from the track to catch a train for the Spa. Many horses were loaded on the cars last night and more will follow them this morning. The books put up 1,000 to 1 against In the Dark and Sinapis in the first race, and some of the long shot players took a chance with five-dollar bills.

One of the bookmakers in the "dead line" the first four races. The "piker" during the first four races. The "piker," who evidently believed in parleying his bets, placed $10 on Czaraphine at 3 to 5. He bet the $16 right back on Lavator at 1 to 2. Then the $24 went on the Paget Stable at 1 to 8. With $27 in hand he played Hamburg Belle at 1 to 12, winning $2 more. Back to Old England went the $29, and the "piker" borrowed a quarter to get home. Hildebrand and Shaw each rode two winners. Hildebrand made the other jockeys look small indeed during the meeting, for he handled 29 firsts. Martin was next with 14, Burns and Redfern each rode 9, H. Phillips, Travers and Ray had 6, Cormack, C. Kelly H. Cochran and Shaw piloted 4, O'Neill, Won-H. Cochran and Shaw piloted 4, O'Neill, Wonderly and Lyne had 3, with 2 each for J. Jones, E. Walsh, Kunz, J. Boland, Cole and Miles. George Odom rode only one winner, and that was Waterboy in an overnight handicap. The previous winners of the Oaks were A. Featherstone's Reina and Hatasoo in 1901 and 1902, and J. R. Keene's Birch Broom last year. The winners of the Neptune were the Keenes' Tommy Atkins, B. Schreiber's Otis, the Keenes' Injunction and Sydney Paget's Ormonde's Right.

LAWN TENNIS. Play in Staten Island and Seabright Tour-

Club, at Livingston, Staten Island, slow progress is being made in the club handicap lawn tennis tournament. There is a big list of entrants in the men's singles, and some $1,500, which was like finding it, as each borse named fairly rolled home.

The clubhouse commissioners loaded the books with Czaraphine money at $ to 5 or any price the books were willing to quote. They also took Lavator and there was much jubilation among their patrons when these horses won. But it was only the very big fellows was. But it was only the very big fellows that were willing to risk as much as $5,000 to win $1,000 on Tradition and Jonquil in the Keptune. Hamburg Belle opened at 1 to 15, but there was so little disposition to back her at these figures that the layers raised the ante to 1 to 12, and even then got very little business. The wise men preferred to take Sonoma Belle a place at 1 to 2. But E. R. Thomas was sure that Dimple would be second, and bet $5,000 on her a place &t 6 to 5.

Fuller received a rousing welcome when he rode OM England out of the paddock for the fifth race. He has not been seen in the saddle for a long time, but of late his habits were so good that his employers decided to reward him with a mount. Incidentally, the Sullivans—Big Tim, Little Tim, Florrie, Paddy, Dinny, Chrystie—and their hustling lieutenants, thought that the combination of Fuller and Old England could not be beaten. It was with a feeling that it was a shame to take the money that they proceeded to unhook the bankrolls to such an extent that the sheet writers were soon cracking the knuckles of their fingers from overwork.

"It's de biggest kind of a cinchiest cinchi" declared Papa Joe as he rushed from book to book flashing the yellowbacks. "Dere

FINE HORSES FOR BAY SHORE. Many Champions in List of Entries for Annual Show. The list of entries for the forthcoming Bay Shore Horse Show comprise the pick of the Long Island stables and some of the best in Manhattan. Frederick G. Bourne of Oakdale, with his hackneys, Delaware, Indian Squaw and Indian Queen; Mrs. J. B. M. Grosvenor, with her trotters, Fascination and Elevation; J. F. Carlisle, with Coronation, Underwriter and Promoter; Mrs. John Gerken, with Newsboy and Shopgirl; Miss Electra Havemeyer, with her polo ponies: Mrs. T. Hitchcock of Westbury, with her hunters and saddle horses; Harry T. Peters of Islip, with his saddle horses; Sidney Holle. Indian Squaw and Indian Queen; Mrs. J. B. M. of Islip, with his saddle horses; Sidney Holloway, with his high jumpers; and Richard Carman with his pair, Donner and Blitzen, are some of the well known exhibitors. Carman with his pair, Donner and Biltzen, are some of the well known exhibitors.

Forty classes will be judged during the three days of the show. The contest for the Bourne cup for gig horses will be no doubt the feature of the meeting this year. Probably one of the most interesting things about the show will be the contest between hackney and trotting bred show horses. Five saddle classes are on the programme. Three jumping classes have been included. The interest of the county will be held by the two maiden classes and six local classes. The judges will be Frank Sturgis of this city: Reginald W. Rives of New Hamburg, N. Y.; Robert L. Stevens of Westbury, L. I.; W. L. Herbert of Lakewood, N. J.; W. C. Gulliver of Southampton, L. I.; George Willing of Philadelphia, and Dr. Roscoe R. Hughey McGovern is not at all satisfied with Hughey McGovern is not at all satisfied with the result of his recent encounter with Frankie Neil and wants another scrap with the bantam champion. Yesterday Sam Harris, for McGovern, challenged Neil, and it is likely that the pair will be matched. McGovern thinks that it is not fair to judge him by his showing with Neil, as the contest was a short one and things might have gone better for him had the mill proceeded. He is of the opinion that in a longer scrap he will do better. McGovern says that if Neil puts up a forfeit he will cover it and arrange a go at 116 pounds, ringside, the bantam limit, and sign articles at once.

This is one better than bogey for the course and, barring lost strokes on the fifth, tenth and twelfth, was only three down to par, Willie Norton, the club's professional recently did a round in 76, the best since the record of 72 he established during the visit of J. H. Taylor, the former British open champion.

Taylor, the former British open champion.

E. M. Byers, who has been playing over the classic links in Scotland and England since the Sandwich championship, has written to friends that he will return in August, and that Robert Maxwell, Jr., will undoubtedly be with him. Under the new conditions, Maxwell will be eligible for the amateur championship at Baltusrol, and the presence of Great Britain's champion of 1903 will add much to the event. Byers has sent as gifts sets of iron clubs from St. Andrews to John Reid, Jr., and Walter T. Stern.

In the first of the open weekly handicaps at the Deal Golf Club Harry B. Billings of Essex County, who played for the first time since his return from England, won the gross, and Jason Rogers of the home club the next prize. The scores:

NEW YORK A. C. SWIMMING RACES. Lewers Wins Novice Race-Adams Swims Fast Half Mile.

The New York A. C. held a series of swim ming contests at Travers Island yesterday, and the events attracted all the local aquation cracks. The races were held across a tidal salt water course extending from the yacht house to a string of buoys off "Little Germany," and as the races were decided on the flood tide there was no advantage at any part of the course. The programme opened with a 100 yard novice and the fine string of sixteen tyro swimmers appeared at the start. Two trial heats were necessary, and there were lots of fun and splashing among the Two trial heats were necessary, and there were lots of fun and splashing among the youngsters. George B. Lewers, a mere stripling, won the first heat, and showed splendid form; and he had no trouble in winning the final although hampered by another swimmer. The time of 1 minute 29 4-5 seconds was exceellent for a lad of Lewers's years. H. B. Warren, another youngster, distinguished himself also by winning the 100 yard handicap in the actual time of 1 minute 10 seconds.

Great things were expected of C. M. Daniels in the balf mile handicap, but the New York A. C. record breaker was off color and swam in a heartless manner. The race was pluckilly won by E. H. Adams, who beat Daniels's actual time for the distance by three-fifths of a second. Adams won by forty yards.

Knox Commercial cars have reduced the cost of delivering parcels to the lowest point yet reached. This was demonstrated recently in a week's test under the most exacting conditions by a big Boston department store. The price reached was 2.35 cents per parcel. Messrs. Jordan, Marsh & Co. and Messrs. Houghton & Dutton, two leading firms of Boston, have placed large orders for the Knox Commercial wagons, as have also Messrs. Duniep & Co. of New York city.

Two gold medals and a bronze medal were won Two gold medals and a bronge medal were won by the Columbia 12-14 borse-power light tonneau car, mark XLHI., in the Mount Washington hill elimbing contests and mountain endurance runs, July 11-15. This car was a regular stock model, such as the Electric Vehicle Company are delivering daily to customers, and deserves due credit for its victory, having to compete, as it did, with higher powered cars equipped with special gears and hill climbing devices. climbing devices.

J. A. Kingman of the Locomobile Company. J. A. Kingman of the Locomobile Company, Hartford, observes that not one person out of a hundred interested in antomobiles investigated the quelity of material of which an auto is built. This in itself is one of the essentials. As Mr. Kingman justly remarks, "A car won't stand up unless it has the right stuff in it." Special material thoroughly tested is all that is being used in the manufacture of Locomobile gasolene cars, and the closes the investigation by the prospective buyer the better the Locomobile company likes it.

Much has been said of the mechanical parts of the Frankiin car, all well merited, but nothing of its carrying capacity. This is important. There is plently of room in the Frankiin. The light, car has a platform on the back which will hold a large hamper or trunk. There is also ample room under the seat. The Frankiin light tonneau has considerable free room under the seats. The touring ear, not having the bulky machinery that many other cars have, has very great carrying capacity, plently of room under seats, with place for two large hampers on each side of Car.

M. Logan has fitted more fine stables in and around New York with his patent horse stall during the past season than ever before. It clearly demonstrates that the best class of horse owners are always on the lookout for anything that will add to the comfort and health of their horses. Logan's new stall admits of one saying that it is the most perfect sanitary stall in the world. It is recommended by the New York State Board of Health and has been adopted by them. One very important feature of this stall is that it can be important feature of this stail is that it can easily adapted to old stables.

A great clearing sale is on at the Peters Harness and Saddlery Company's warerooms. 88 West Broadway. Big bargains are to be had in horse sheets, scrim covers, inp dusters, nots, brushes, currycombs, halters, whips, &c. There has been an exceptionally heavy demand for leather luggage at all the Mark Cross Co.'s stores this season. This demand has not all been from people of wealth. People of moderate means but of refined taste have made their purchases here and have found out that it is cheaper and more satisfactory to buy in a fine store. All the Cross leather goods are saddler sewn in their English shops.

English shops.

The progressive policy used by R. H. Macy & Co. in all departments is well evidenced in their harness quarters. They have eliminated all prejudice against purchasing harness in a department store, not alone by their prices, but by the fine quality of the harness they turn out. The best of materials are used by the best of workmes, but all under the supervision of P. H. Comerford, whom horsemen know as one of the few good harness makers in the country.

NELSON'S GREAT FIGHT.

Beats Eddie Hanlon in a Corking Twenty Round Bout at San Francisco. Little Eddie Hanlon, the California lightweight, of whose fistic ability so much has been said, was defeated by Battling Nelson of Chicago before the Hayes Valley A. C., San Francisco, on Friday night. The lads San Francisco, on Friday night. The lads were to have met for twenty rounds, but Nelson got the verdict in the nineteenth owing to the interference of the police, who stopped the combat to save Hanlon from further beating. The end came as a surprise, for most of the wise sports picked Hanlon to win and made him a 10 to 63/ favorite. Nelson's victory was only gained through the latter's persistent upfull fighting. He was outclassed in every round except through the latter's persistent upful fighting. He was outclassed in every round except the last five. Then the tide turned in his favor, and when the combat was stopped there was no question as to his superiority. The bout was one of the best witnessed on the Pacific coast. There was not much of a breathing spell on either side, it being biff bang from the start of the gong. This is Nelson's second fine victory within three months, and by whipping lianlon he is now biff bang from the start of the gong. This is Nelson's second fine victory within three months, and by whipping lianlon he is now in line to meet any lightweight in the business. Those who saw him defeat Hanlon think that he will have a fine chance against Joe Gans, and there is talk of bringing the two together.

There was very little science in the combat, both men going at each other in random fashion, depending upon swings to do the business. It was a case of wearing each other out, and Nelson, being able to stand the gaff better, succeeded in winning. In the first six rounds Hanlon hammered Nelson without stint, but the latter's capacity for punishment was remarkable. From this round till the eleventh it was nip and tuck, with Hanlon in the van as far as socying was concerned. In the twelfth and thurteenth rounds Nelson seemed to be going, but when Hanlon started to finish him he would come back like a demon and exchange blow. For blow until Eddie was weary.

From the fifteenth to the end of the combat Nelson took the upper hand. He got to Hanlon, and his blows seemed to have a bad effect, for Hanlon was gradually but surely growing weaker. In the sixteenth and seventeenth rounds Nelson was strong and finder put him down. He took the count and managed to stick out the round by sheer pluck. When he toed the scratch for the nineteenth it was evident that he was gone. He bad no strength and Nelson battered him all over the ring. The crewit yelled to stop the mill, and the police finally sid. It was a wise more. Belly Roche, who was the referee, then declared Nelson the victor.
